VOLUME 122, ISSUE 2

MT. CONSTITUTION LODGE

SPRING 2012

Ted Talks and Discussion May 16

Come witness two brilliant authors discuss Development or Destruction, where are we heading? Peter Diamandis, who runs the X-Prize Foundation, makes a case for an optimistic future while Paul Gilding, the former CEO of Greenpeace, suggests we have filled up all the livable space on Earth and our future is doomed. Discussion to follow. How do you see our World's, our Nation's, our Island's future?

Helping Joe and Elaine

If you can help Elaine and Joe, please give them a call. Elaine requested help with occasional house cleaning, outside work, and meals (no white flour, sugar).

Opening and Closing the Lodge

If you come in first, please turn on the tea water. If you're the last to leave, please spill out the tea water. Thanks.

New Entry Into the Lodge

We are now using the new entry to the lodge. If you choose to bring in your comfortable slippers, there is room to store them.

Lodge Art Request

There are two empty spaces on the west wall of the lodge. You're invited to bring something in that may be suitable.

Bring in Your Mug

If you have a nice-looking extra coffee mug, please bring it in.

Mount Baker Trip

The Mount Baker Trip will be July 9-12. Some may stay until Friday if possible.

Kitchen Supplies

We will be reorganizing our kitchen supplies and getting a lock for our cabinet as well as storing what we need in the storage space in the lodge. Imagine this: dish washing liquid that is ours and is easy to find! Cloth towels to wipe up spills and dry dishes. Knives, can openers, bottle openers, plates, glasses, easy to find and easy to store!

Fred Enge's Gratitude. What's Yours?
